

FIRE MOUNTAIN ARTS COUNCIL
MINUTES OF APRIL 24, 2024

Present: Jessica Scogin, Louise Fisher, Fred Schwindt, April Doolittle, Marty Fortin, Brad nelson, Bruce Roberts, Clint Scogin, Amber McKnight. Absent: Kevin Downing, Brian Green

Bruce made a motion to approve agenda. Amber seconded and motion passed. April made a motion to approve March minutes. Marty seconded and motion passed.

Treasurer Report (Fred): Former Morton resident Belle Williams donated $1,000. Fred said FMAC is in “pretty good” standing financially. Present OnStage balance is $26,500.

Committee Reports:

1. Events: “Laughing Stock” and “I Hate Shakespeare” classic theater reported about 40 at each of 4 performances. Open House for new addition is May 18, ribbon cutting at 2PM.
2. Gallery: Youth art show May 29 to June 2.
3. Facility (Bruce): Building inspector made a few notes about the new addition to the Roxy. The number #233 must be on the building. A key box is needed. The green room will be called “learning studio.”
4. OnStage (Amber): Children’s “Shrek” will be performed May 3 to 11.
5. Marketing (Marty): Much going on. A suggestion that the whole season be advertised.
6. Finance (Clint): Bookkeeping transitions progressing.
7. Movies: many new releases

New business: Discussion of future plays. Overlapping shows discussed. Season policies and procedures needed by October for the next year. 2. Discussion of producers, directors (Annie Cooper, Fiona Thornton, Lynne Olmos, Brian Green, Kevin Downing, Christina Brischetto). 3. Perhaps improv in September and TAC dinner theater in February. 4. Committee to furnish addition: Bruce (Chairman), April, Fred, Jessica.

Louise